RETURNS FROM TRIP TO MEXICO

Mrs. Charles G. Moreau has returned from an interesting trip thru Mexico which she counts as one of the finest trips she has taken in all of her globe trotting.

Mrs. Moreau stopped over in San Antonio to visit her sister-in-law Mrs. Hognore Muller and then on to Mexico. She visited Monterey, Mexico City, Pyramids, Taxco, Acapulco, Xochimilco and many other points.

One of the long to be remembered features of the trip Mrs. Moreau said was the stopover at Taxco. Here she said the town is perched like an eagle's nest on the side of the mountain which is better described as a town which "just happened." She visited the churches with frescoes of golden inlay, explored the market places, and the Silver Artisans' shops which line the narrow streets. Also the memory of Xochimilco (The Floating Gardens), the Coney Island of Mexico will never fade.

There was much more that Mrs. Moreau saw but summing it all up it was the one trip in a life time. But she is glad to be back in Bay St. Louis and her friends are glad to have her back.

Releases News Story On Mississippi Congress P-T. A.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald state publicity director of the Miss. Congress of Parents and Teachers has released the following story: "The welfare of children and youth continued to be chief emphasis of the Mississippi Congress of Parents and Teachers as their Board of Managers met in a recent planning session in Jackson.

"Thirty Board members, came from all parts of Mississippi to plan with the new president, Mrs. Ralph Hester of Jackson for the next biennium. The board stated its position in favor of the school lunch program. Members and officers are asking the legislature to vote favorably on the measure to appropriate the administrative funds, which will entitle the state to more than two million for food and equipment. PTA members have worked for years with volunteer time and money to keep this project going and have seen the results in improved health and greater ability to learn. They feel this opportunity for substantial support for the program should not be lost.

"Next year, 1947 will mark fifty years of existence for the National Congress of Parents and Teachers and will be known as Jubilee Year. Membership which has shown remarkable gains in the last few years in Mississippi, will set another high goal with the slogan, "Fifty years, 50,000 members." The national membership last year reached the four million mark. Parent-Teacher week in October is a high point in the fall membership drive, and the birthday gifts this year have been designated for the main project of the Congress of this year, Education for Responsible Parenthood. The latter has proved to be such a high type of parent education, which is one of the main objectives of the parent-teacher program, that the vote was unanimous to give it full support of the Mississippi Congress."

Two summer institutes will be held in August, one at Delta State Teachers College on the 6 and 7 and one at Mississippi Southern College in Hattiesburg on August 8 and 9. Mrs. McDonald urges that all teachers attend this who can possibly arrange to be there. Among the speakers will be a vice-president of the National PTA.

The Centennial Drive of the Parish of our Lady of the Gulf which has been on for the past three years is rapidly drawing to a close. The collection of this year will mark the end. The plan for collection of the pledges this year will be changed in that one person will do all the collecting. ## LAST CALL FOR PAPER

For several weeks we have been using these columns to write about the paper and rags drive upon which the ladies of the Altar Society have been working. Now at last the time has arrived, and on this Saturday the 27th, we hope to gather up several thousand pounds of paper and rags.

Just put what you have on your front porch, and it will be picked up, or if you have too much to put out, put a little so the men will know you have some, and then you can ask him to gather it from your basement or shed. But this is not the end, because we will again pick up on the last Saturday of next month, so keep on saving, please. We thank each and everyone in advance for whatever they give, and hope you all will give again.

NATIONAL GUARD TO BE REORGANIZED

Major General John C. Persons, of Birmingham, Alabama, Commanding General of the Thirty First Dixie Division during World War II, and an outstanding soldier, recently spoke in Jackson, Mississippi on reactivating the National Guard of Mississippi.

The 31st Division in World War II was composed originally of men from the National Guard of Mississippi, Alabama, Florida and Louisiana. In the reactivation of the National Guard, only troops from the States of Alabama and Mississippi will compose the 31st division, which again will be commanded by Major General Persons.

The Assistant Divisional Commander will be Brigadier General Alexander G. Paxton, of Greenville, Miss., an outstanding soldier and veteran of World War I and II. The State of Mississippi has been allocated 7,034 troops for the National Guard, consisting of the following units:

- 1 Regiment of Infantry.
- 1 Battalion of Light Artillery
- 1 Battalion of Medium Artillery
- 1 Headquarters Battery and a Headquarters for Division Artillery
- 1 Mechanized Reconnaissance Troop
- 1 Battalion of Combat Engineers
- 1 Medical Battalion
- 1 Fighting Squadron
- 1 Tank Battalion
- 1 Headquarters and Headquarters Detachment Medical Battalion
- 1 Medical Clearing Company
- 1 Medical Collecting Company
- 1 Medical Motor Ambulance Company
- 1 Ordnance Medium Maintenance Company

1 Army Ground Force Band
Part of 31st Division Headquarters Staff

1 State Headquarters and Detachment
It is hoped that Communities where units were stationed before World War II will be in a position again to support such units. It is hoped also that National Guard units can be located where there are now State Guard units.

Mississippi had only thirty-seven units of 3000 men before World War II, and now it will have approximately 68,000, which means that a great many communities that do not have National Guard units before may get a unit provided they can provide the armory facilities and personnel.

The National Guard will be a more potential force than before, a more efficient Guard. It will provide the State of Mississippi with a more adequate force for any emergency and will give the United States a military unit organized and equipped, and ready to take the field in a very short period of time.

Communities interested in securing National Guard units and who are willing to provide the armory facilities should make application in writing to the Office of the Adjutant General, State of Mississippi. Likewise, former officers of the Guard and those interested in the Guard should contact the Office of the Adjutant General by letter.

A REAL SERVICE

WE were amazed at the report submitted to the annual meeting of the members of the Coast Electric Power Association by the Directors and Officers, which showed the rapid growth and sound financial condition of this association.

From a very small membership at the time of its organization, it has grown in leaps and bounds and today the membership exceeds 2,500. It is a cooperative association and is owned entirely by the members, and has property in excess of mortgage obligations which now exceeds $100,000.00. The Coast Electric Power Association, was originally organized as the Hancock Power Association, and only served the people of this County. It was later formed into a three County organization serving the people of Hancock, Pearl River and Harrison Counties.

The success of the Coast Electric Power Association can be attributed to the splendid work of its Officers and Board of Directors, in their attention to their duties and in the selection of the personnel to manage the association.

At its membership meeting four of the five members of the original Board of Directors were re-elected. These men, Calvin W. Fountain, John S. Rester, James L. Crump, and Isaac Frier-son, have served this association for ten years, without compensation. Today the Board of Directors have been increased to eleven members, and the men who have been added to this Board from time to time have served faithfully and well and with the result that the whole Board was re-elected without opposition.

These men deserve the thanks and approbation of every person within the district that the association serves. They have given their time and labor and the benefit of the experiences that they have gained throughout the years they have served, with no thought or hope of any monetary reward. They deserve some recognition for they have rendered a great service, and as time goes on and the rural sections of these three counties continue to improve and develop, the service that these men have rendered should never be forgotten.

Under the capable leadership of "Doc" Fountain as he is familiarly known throughout Hancock County, who is president of the Coast Electric Power Association, these men have labored in unison, striving through the lean perilous years to make a go of it, and we hope they will achieve their greatest ambition, to see every home in the district have all the electricity they need for their comfort, enjoyment and pleasure.

"GOOD HOMES, GOOD NATIONS"

ONE of our readers has asked that we publish the following letter written by Mr. Pieur Leary which was published in the Times-Picayune of Saturday, July 13th, 1946, in their column VIEWS ON SUNDAY TOPIC from readers of the Times-Picayune.

New Orleans, La.

Editor, The Times-Picayune:

Last June a local newspaper carried a front-page story of juvenile delinquency.

After all of the bad statistics were quoted about wayward youth, this was said: "Meanwhile, juvenile court authorities are at a loss for a solution."

In other words, crime is building and they don't know the solution.

What was the solution in the years gone by? Very simple, the home. Who kept the homes good? Good mothers and good fathers who reared good children who made good citizens who made good mayors, good congressmen, good policemen, good business men, good presidents and even good juvenile judges.

I know readers are about to ask, "Supposing the homes are bad?" That is where the clergy came in. They made the rounds. They learned from the neighborhood grapevine that John and Mary were about to break up about some trivial argument in their first years of marriage. The Sky Pilot immediately made a call and straightened up John and Mary before the lawyer got to them to scoop up $25 to start the once happy couple on the rocks.

There were some divorces in the old days, but not 4000 annually right here in New Orleans. Four thousand divorces mean 8000 adults and perhaps one child to each union brings the total to 12,000 lives disturbed in one year right here in New Orleans.

Perhaps the clergy has too many extra-curricular activities in these streamlined times, and are missing the most important, a checkup on the homes of their flock. All humans in our great country come from the home. If they are bad, then the good shepherd should pay more attention to the black sheep.

In short the solution has been there ever since the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock. It is still there. The voice is crying in the wilderness. Let the good old-time clergyman make the rounds, stop the cancer at the inception—patch up the spats before there are divorces.

Bay High Annual

The Bay High Annual is just off the press and is a very creditable piece of work. The contents of the book is the work of the Staff of the Student Prints, the school paper and shows careful arrangement of material and placing of pictures. As a whole the annual would do credit to a more adult group and we congratulate these young people on this splendid publication.

Sound Economy & Commonsense

There has been a lot of loose talk in our time about money. Many of us have begun to take prosperity for granted, as we take the air we breathe and enjoy the sunshine.

Prosperity is like freedom in that its price is eternal vigilance. Through dissipation we can lose one just as easily as we can the other.

General prosperity comes as the result of hard work, intelligent spending, wise saving and safe investing. When the people of the nation practice this sound economy of commonsense, they enjoy a measure of normal prosperity. It is the extravagance of individuals and splendor governments that create economic disaster.

Fortunately it is not necessary for the whole country to be prosperous for the individual to thrive. There are individuals who prosper through every depression. They are the ones who saved while others squandered, who laid by something against the day when misfortune comes.

We have passed through a period of easy money. The war stimulated credit-spending to the tune of billions. Jobs are still plentiful, wages high and business good. How long will it continue? Who on earth can tell?

We knew that the unprecedented prosperity prevailing in this area was not permanent. And we all know that we will have to scratch a little harder as time goes on.

The war is over. We are in the process of reconversion and we are prepared for it. Thousands of us saved for this eventuality and we will keep on saving. To save for prosperity is the sound economy of commonsense.

Put by something for the unforeseen as well as the to-be-expected. Underwrite your personal prosperity by building a savings account at your bank. Let us help you conserve your financial resources.

"JOB DIVIDENDS" at General Electric

For the year 1945, $35,000,000 in addition to wages was spent by General Electric in extra benefits for employees

It isn't a new thing for General Electric to put more than money into pay envelopes for its employees.

"Job dividends"—these extras that G-E employees get in addition to wages—have a sound business reason. To be successful, a company must be efficient. A man with fewer worries can produce more efficiently, which makes further benefits possible.

Profit-sharing plans, relief and loan plans began over 10 years ago at General Electric. Life insurance for employees, cash for suggestions began over 20 years ago. Pension plans were started 33 years ago. And vacations with pay began 53 years ago.

Every employee has a stake in the future of General Electric. For out of its success—and only out of success—can come further advances in living standards. That is the aim of General Electric, not alone for its employees, but for the public, who gain by new and better products, continuously improved.

Some Interesting Statistics On American Red Cross Water Safety

LEARN TO SWIM

"Statistics show that 36.8 percent of all drowning victims in the United States last year were of school age. American Red Cross water safety courses are available to all ages, six to sixty."

2 beginners and 1 intermediate swimming classes already held.

"It is estimated by Red Cross water safety authorities that 75 percent of all drowning fatalities occur within 6 feet of safety."

"Seven thousand Americans drown each year in the period from May through August, according to Red Cross water safety service, which states that the majority who drown are incompletely trained persons, overestimating their abilities."

Water Safety and caution is taught along with swimming.

"During the war, Red Cross swimming instructors trained hundreds of thousands of soldiers and sailors to cope with deep water perils. These same instructors, more than 15,000, are available this summer to instruct water safety courses in communities throughout the United States."

An instructor will be in Bay St. Louis late in August to give an instruction course—age over 19.

"Red Cross water safety experts say that only 10% of our fellow citizens swim well; 40 per cent take care of themselves in water; and 50 per cent cannot swim at all."

Many adults here would learn to swim if we had swimming pool facilities.

"In 1913, 10,000 persons drowned. The following year the American Red Cross inaugurated its water safety program. More people participate in water sports, and there are approximately 3,000 fewer fatalities."

"Eighty million Americans will go swimming this summer. Red Cross water safety experts say that only about seven per cent of them are really safe in the water."

43 children have completed the Beginners class. 10 have finished intermediate and a Junior Life Saving Class will begin next week.

Over Six And One Half Million Fish Released In Mississippi

According to C. A. "Uncle Charlie" Downs who is in charge of hauling fish from the Federal Hatcheries to restocking sites for the Commission, there has been 6,803,158 fish put into public and private lakes, ponds and streams since 1941. His brief report follows:

Year	Truck Miles	Fish Hauled
1941	39,823	706,000
1942	37,459	1,402,025
1943	27,670	1,525,800
1944	28,799	1,176,678
1945	34,215	1,649,500
1946 (April, May and June)		325,155

TOTALS .... 167,966 ..... 6,785,158
(Report does not include thousands of fish rescued from borrow pits etc. Figures represent only fish hauled from hatcheries.)

Mr. Downs expects to haul at least another 1,635,000 more fish from the hatcheries before December 31 of this year.

Mr. Heileger, Superintendent of the Federal Fish Hatchery at Lyman, and Mr. Flynt Superintendent of the Federal Hatchery at Meridian, have set a record for cooperation with this department. Over one million fish per year furnished for Mississippians is an impressive record.

Mississippi is recognized as a "fisherman's Paradise," thanks to Heileger Flynt, Downs and our Commission.—Miss. Game & Fish, July, 1946.

Uncle Sam Says

This year's Independence Day is a wonderful contrast for you as against the Fourth of July of the past few years. Tonight you may be seeing peaceful fireworks blazing over your American home town. No more appropriate message could be more appropriate message could be burned against the July 4, 1946 sky than the one I am looking at in Los Angeles this moment. Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder has said the same thing in an equally impressive way: "You are insuring your own independence by investing regularly in these same bonds."

Home Agent Notes

The finest and foremost objectives of the famine relief program are:

1. Save and share WHEAT and FAT products.
2. Use the more plentiful foods.
3. Waste NO foods.
4. Keep victory Gardens producing.

The State Nutrition Committee suggests homemakers, food stores, restaurants and other public eating places and victory gardeners all have a part in helping to get this job done.

You homemakers can give your immediate and continued cooperation in reducing use of critical foods. You must continue to use locally plentiful foods such as potatoes, fresh fruits and vegetables, and so forth. Last week, July 15-20 was National Home Food Preservation Week, the particular week for homemakers and others to realize that this year the need is greater than ever for home preserved foods. Last year over 18½ million quarts of food were preserved in Mississippi homes. In the whole United States 25 million housewives put up more than 4 billion jars of food.

This year's goal is to preserve more food than ever before at home and in community food preservation centers in order to meet the unusual demands for food.

Food stores can cooperate in this food program by displaying the more plentiful foods. The storekeepers can advise homemakers on salvaging scarce supplies, and on buying only what they need for immediate use and making greater use of plentiful foods. The grocer is in a good position to explain why bread and flour may be short at times.

Many restaurants serve bread only upon request and others limit servings to one roll or slice. The national, state and local restaurant associations have done a good job of organizing to carry out needed food conservation measures. Their continued cooperation is needed in reducing amount of wheat products including bread, pastry, rolls and fats and oils offered patrons.

It is not too late to put in a garden, and what your garden grows will help you keep your budget balanced. It will also help to keep people alive around the world. In spite of all the rain, on the whole gardens are not bad, although rains have caused considerable loss. The heavy rains have made it hard to keep down weeds, make new plantings and many tomatoes, beans, pepper and eggplant are rotting. Bugs and disease are more plentiful, too.

The wise money is on Sureshot, friend. You won't find him in this race or in any race. And yet Sureshot runs every moment of your life. He pays off $4 for every $3 at all of my windows in banks and at the Treasury Department. All you have to do is to keep your money on Sureshot and you don't care if he doesn't come in for 10 years. This is one bet which your Uncle Sam can guarantee as a winner. You're one American I don't have to tell that Sureshot has another more familiar name: United States Savings Bonds.

If you have large green-ripe tomatoes that it appears are going to rot, pull them and let them ripen in a sunny window. Keep tomatoes, peppers and eggplants off the ground. Butterbeans have been molding instead of drying. They should be picked green as long as rainy weather continues.

There are twenty-two vegetables that can be planted in the fall garden. They cannot be planted at the same time. Ask at the home agent's office for a fall planting calendar.

ORTTE THEATRE SUNDAY - MONDAY "TWO SISTERS FROM BOSTON"

June Allyson, Kathryn Grayson with Jimmy Durante And Peter Lawford

The story of a singer who makes the transition from cheap Bowery music hall to grand opera serves as a showcase for the talents of such varied performers as Kathryn Grayson, June Allyson, Lauritz Melchior, Jimmy Durante and Peter Lawford in "Two Sisters From Boston," new M-G-M musical on the Ortte screen this Sunday and Monday.

Kathryn Grayson is cast as Abigail the ambitious sister who abandons her straight-laced Back Bay background in the attempt to crash the sacred portals of a New York opera house. Failing this, she becomes the star performer in Jimmy Durante's beer hall a compromise which shocks her staid sister, Martha, played by June Allyson.

In an attempt to placate her scandalized family, Abigail manages to push herself to the front of the stage in one opera performance but resultant publicity ties her up in a compromising way with one of the opera's wealthiest patrons, a rake with a penchant for attractive female singers.

It is the effort of Durante, Miss Allyson and Peter Lawford, playing the opera patrons, son, to extricate Miss Grayson from her unfortunate position and to give her a brilliant opportunity to reveal her opera voice that makes for the tongue-in-cheek adventures of a merry plot.

The picture is lavish in its musical presentations which range from singing and hoofing on the part of Miss Grayson Durante and June Allyson in the beer hall setting to ballads and operatic arias sung both by Miss Grayson and Lauritz Melchior of Metropolitan Opera fame.

Miss Grayson, who is easy to look at as she is to listen to, combines her outstanding singing and acting talents with felicity. Her co-star, Miss Allyson, lends an interesting contrast as the prim sister who finds Jimmy Durante's vernacular a language difficult to understand. Durante, of course, runs off with most of the comedy prizes in his inimitable way and whether he is putting over such turn-of-the-century songs as "The Fire Chief's Daughter" or "Down By the Sea," or blundering his way into plot complications, he is always the one and only Durante.

The romantic angle centers on the love affair between Miss Allyson and Peter Lawford who proves himself a smooth, ingratiating performer undoubtedly destined for great favor with the distaff side of any audience.

IT'S A FACT

That the Mississippi Gulf Coast was a summer resort when the only access to it was by sailing ship or ox cart. Records show that a number of Natchez families spent their summers on the Coast as early as 1814. At that time the only access to the Coast was by sailing ship from New Orleans or by ox cart from the interior.

AND IT'S ALSO A FACT

That the United States Brewers Foundation, through its Mississippi Committee, contributes to the public welfare of Mississippians by maintaining good conditions wherever beer is legally sold in Mississippi. Records show that the standards of operation of beer retailers in Mississippi have been materially improved by the Foundation's Self-Regulation program. This program has the wholehearted support of law enforcement authorities and serious thinking citizens throughout the State.

Are Calling MORE THAN EVER . . .

If you've experienced a delay recently on a call to a nearby town, you may have wondered why, since most of your calls to more distant places are going through promptly. Here's the answer:

Between nearby towns and cities, folks are calling more than ever . . . one-fifth more calls today than during even the peak of the wartime load. The resulting occasional congestion will be relieved as rapidly as materials can be secured and additional circuits provided.

Excellent Cast

Miss DeHaviland is delightfully pleasant and beautiful in her return to the screen after an absence of almost two years. Fully recovered from her seige of pneumonia, and vibrantly healthy again, she makes a most attractive participation in this highly entertaining three star recital to the altar. Sonny Tufts, who bumps his way into and out of Miss DeHaviland's affections half a dozen times, is his usual amiable, awkward self, and again justifies his overnight rise to stardom.

Excellent support is given by James Gleason, as Milland's commanding officer, Constance Dowling, whose film bow was made recently opposite Danny Kaye "Up in Arms" as a luscious blonde who's out to snare Tufts, and Percy Kilbride as Olivia's very funny father. In smaller, but no less expertly performed roles are Jean Heather, Frank Paylen, Jay Morris, Jack Reilly and Geirge Turner.

Sidney Lanfield directed and Fred Korda produced "The Goodbye Girl", easily one of the gayest comedies of the season.

Uncle Sam Says

United States Savings Bonds are still fighting enemy forces which can do to you what the Nazis and Japs were unable to accomplish. This enemy is inflation—run-away prices which can wreck you and your country. Every bond you buy today still serves your country because your continued investment in bonds keeps your dollars in a safe place and out of competition for the still scarce consumer goods.

Some time ago Governor Bailey suggested that Mississippi send a ship load of cattle to Greece. B. B. Wiggins was put in charge of the collection of cattle and had fine success with the movement.

"THE MOLLUSC" PRESENTED BY LITTLE THEATER

H. H. Davies' English drawing-room comedy, "The Mollusc," in which George Arliss once starred, was presented by a Bay St. Louis Little Theater cast on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights of this week. Audiences composed of members and their guests filled the Carroll Avenue Playhouse for every performance and were most enthusiastic in their praise for the four excellent portrayals given by the cast and of the really lovely stage setting achieved in spite of the limited facilities of the building.

Credit for the latest Little Theater success is due not only to the efforts of its director, Mrs. Adaline Knoblock, but to the unusual ability and willingness of the cast, not one of whom failed to appear at a single rehearsal. Mrs. Shelby Tucker, who moved here recently from Memphis, was delightful in her comedy-characterization of Mrs. Baxter, the mollusc—a self-centered, calculating, jealous wife who used every honeyed feminine wile to live comfortably without exerting an ounce of effort herself. John Bell, as her husband and the chief victim of her schemes, portrayed with simplicity and comic-seriousness the role of an English country-gentleman so dominated by his wife that he unconsciously turned to their children's young governess for companionship and understanding. The governess, Miss Robert, was played with poise and charm by Gene Robin, who caught the spirit of the English girl torn between loyalty toward her employers and a desire to live a life of her own. The fourth character, Mrs. Baxter's brother, Tom, on a visit to them from Colorado, was acted with traditional American vitality and directness by Netli Manning, a "Brooklynite" now stationed at the Maritime Base at Henderson Point. The audience was kept in constant laughter as Mr. Manning undertook to cure his sister of her "molluscism," and the conventional denouement proved entirely satisfactory both from the point of view of the plot and of the desires of the audience.

"The Mollusc," the fifth play presented by the Little Theater since its organization last February, owes its success in a large measure to the efforts of the unseen workers who provided the necessary mechanical details every play involves. The charming stage setting was created by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, assisted by Mrs. Stella Ward, who painted the lovely English-garden backdrop, and by Mrs. Francis Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Weinfurter, and Mrs. J. J. Joyce, all of whom gave many hours of their time to the work. The properties used were obtained by Joseph Kern and Henry Ott.

lighting was in charge of Joseph Perry, make-up was done by Mrs. Mary Dodge; prompting by Mrs. Dan Russell, Jr., and programs by Mrs. Francis Wilson and Miss Carolyn Marshall.

"The Mollusc" carries out the precedent of the Bay St. Louis Little Theater to present plays which have already achieved success in other cities. In August the Little Theater production will consist of two well-known one-act plays, which have been given numerous times to audiences all over America—"Ten Flights Up," by Lucille Carroll, and "A Night At An Inn," by Lord Dunsany.
